INDECENT EXPOSURE SUSPECT SOUGHT

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Southern Division detectives are asking for assistance from the public in identifying and locating a man who has been committing acts of indecent exposure on the freeway near a pedestrian bridge in San Ysidro. These cases began the first week of September.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic male, but detectives have no further description. The suspect sits in a sky blue four-door, small car parked on the right shoulder of the southbound lanes of Interstate 805 just north of San Ysidro Boulevard. The car is a late 80s or early 90s model. The suspect parks his car under a pedestrian bridge which crosses over the freeway. The suspect has been seen at this location in the afternoon between 2:30 and 3:15 p.m. and on one occasion, between 7:50 and 8:15 a.m. The suspect is exposing himself to children who are crossing the bridge enroute to school.

This suspect was also seen on Interstate 5 under Highway 54 (southbound 5) at about 9:45 a.m. on October 16, 2007 as well as on two other occasions at this location.

Detectives are encouraging anyone who has been a victim of this suspect, or has additional information about him to call Detective Bobby Rollins at (619) 424-0436.

You may also call the Crime Stoppers anonymous, toll-free tip line at (888) 580-TIPS. By calling Crime Stoppers you can remain anonymous and be eligible for a reward of up to $1000 if your information leads to an arrest in this case.
